TO THE HONORABLE, THE CITY COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO

Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the request of the Chairman of the Commission on Human Relations, I transmit herewith an ordinance amending Chapter 2-120 of the Municipal Code regarding advisory councils.

Your favorable consideration of this ordinance will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

LORI E. LIGHTFOOT
MAYOR
ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Sections 2-120-490 and 2-120-500 of the Municipal Code of Chicago are hereby amended by deleting the language struck through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

2-120-490 Establishment and composition:

A Commission on Human Relations is hereby established. The Commission shall consist of a chair and one member designated by the Mayor from each of the advisory councils described in Section 2-120-500, and the Commission shall also include 15 additional members appointed by the Mayor with approval of the City Council. One-third of the initial appointees shall be appointed for terms expiring on July 1st of the year following their appointment, one-third shall be appointed for terms expiring July 1st of the second year following their appointment, and one-third shall be appointed for terms ending on July 1st of the third year following their appointment. Thereafter members shall be appointed for three-year terms. The Mayor shall designate one member to serve as the chairperson of the Commission at the pleasure of the Mayor. Members other than the chairperson shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The chairperson shall be compensated and shall appoint such assistants as are provided in the annual appropriation ordinance, and shall be responsible for the day to day operation of the Commission and its staff. A majority of the members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting business.

2-120-500 Advisory councils.

The following advisory councils of the Commission on Human Relations are hereby established:

(a) Advisory Council on Equity;
(b) Advisory Council on Women; and
(c) Advisory Council on LGBTQ+ issues;
(ed) Advisory Council on Veterans; and
(de) Advisory Council on New Americans.

The Mayor shall appoint up to 21 members to each advisory council, subject to approval of the City Council. Of the initial appointments to each advisory council, one-third shall be appointed for a term of one year, one-third shall be appointed for terms of two years, and one-third shall be appointed for terms of three years. Succeeding appointments to these advisory councils shall be for terms of three years. The Mayor shall designate a one or more members of each advisory council to serve as its chairperson or co-chairs. The Mayor shall also designate one member of each advisory council to chairperson of each advisory council shall be a member ex-officio of the Commission on Human Relations. The Mayor shall also appoint a director for each advisory council. Each director must be a member of the respective advisory council's affected community and shall receive such compensation as provided by the annual appropriation ordinance.

Each advisory council shall have the following powers and duties, relating specifically to the segment of the population of Chicago described in the council's name:

(a) to assist the eCommission on Human Relations in designing educational and enforcement programs for the implementation of the policies embodied in Chapters 2-160 and 5-8 of the Municipal Code;

(b) to act as a liaison between the city government and community organizations, in order to promote cooperation between the government and these organizations and among these organizations in order to enhance services to the population of Chicago;

(c) to cooperate, through the eCommission on Human Relations, with the other advisory councils in the identification of practices and actions having a common discriminatory impact on the advisory council's target population and other segments of society, and in the design of programs for the elimination of such practices and actions;

(d) to develop a procedure, primarily through solicitation of advice from members of the affected community, for recommending appointments of successor members to their respective advisory council to the mayor;

(e) to devise rules of procedure for its meetings, subject to the approval of the eCommission on Human Relations; and

(f) to assist the eCommission on Human Relations by recommending policies and programs, reviewing existing programs, conducting legislative research and reporting to the eCommission on its findings with regard to the specific needs of its community.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect upon its passage and approval.
