Applicant

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in sections 509(a)(3).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are also liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise taxes, payments, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Requests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of Code sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

FOR THE PRESERVATION OF

filed within the month after the end of your annual accounting period. The tax penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is not filed there is reasonable cause for the delay.

are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are liable for the tax on unretired business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter, we are advising whether any of your present or proposed activities are trade or business as defined in section 1313 of the Code.

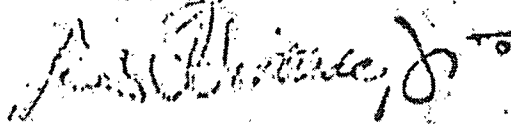

Use an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your applications, a letter will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

The heading of this letter indicates that a caveat applies; the caveat in the enclosure is an integral part of this letter.

Since this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,
